Useful information

Getting here

Road and parking
Two minutes from the Manchester motorway network via Junctions 2 and 3 of the M602. We have 2,300 spaces in our multi-storey car park, just a stone's throw from Manchester United, The Lowry and Imperial War Museum North. Sat nav reference: M50 2EQ.

Tram

The new tram terminus is at the heart of MediaCityUK and it takes 15 minutes to get to Manchester Piccadilly or 10 minutes to Eccles Station. In addition the Broadway tram stop is adjacent to The Pie Factory. metrolink.co.uk

Bus

A new bus service is taking passengers from MediaCityUK to Salford Crescent Station. The service operates every 15 minutes and goes via Salford Shopping City. Find out more at tfgm.com/salfordquayslink

Cycle

MediaCityUK is easy to reach by bike and there are over 300 cycle bays dotted across our site.

Air

Manchester Airport is a 20 minute drive away and offers the choice of more than 200 destinations worldwide. Additional overseas connections are also available at Liverpool John Lennon Airport.

Eat and drink

Retailers are now opening at MediaCityUK, including our very own food store and a variety of restaurants. mediacityuk.co.uk/our-community/retail

Studio audiences

The Studios, MediaCityUK, are operated through a partnership between Peel and SIS. We don't handle requests for tickets for the BBC or any other production company making shows in our Studios. To request audience tickets for the BBC go to: bbc.co.uk/showsandtours/tickets

The owners

The Peel Group – the privately-owned concern behind MediaCityUK – is one of the leading infrastructure, real estate and investment enterprises in the UK. peel.co.uk

The Studios

The Studios at MediaCityUK are the most advanced HD facilities in Europe, located at the heart of a comprehensive and flexible production environment.

BBC

By early 2012, more than 2,300 BBC North staff will be working at MediaCityUK. The BBC is based at Bridge House, Dock House and Quay House.

ITV

ITV is moving its northern HQ to MediaCityUK in 2012. It is also building a bespoke production centre for Coronation Street on Trafford Wharf next to Imperial War Museum North.

Media Village

More than 40 small and medium-sized creative businesses have already made their home at MediaCityUK and are located in The Greenhouse and The Pie Factory.

SIS

Satellite Information Services (SIS), is relocating its production and engineering teams from London to MediaCityUK and is also Peel's operational partner in The Studios.

University of Salford

More than 1,500 students will be able to take advantage of a unique digital learning centre, teaching and research space at the very heart of MediaCityUK.

Apartments

378 apartments at TheHeart and NumberOne offer breathtaking views over MediaCityUK, The Quays and towards Manchester city centre.

The Garage

Our 24-hour multi-storey car park can be accessed via Broadway, just past the Holiday Inn. It's perfect for visiting The Quays, including Old Trafford and The Lowry.

Metrolink

It takes 15 minutes to get from the MediaCityUK tram terminus to Manchester Piccadilly. Trams run every few minutes, seven days a week, to MediaCityUK and Broadway.
