Ordsall Acapella Singers invited to Buxton Musical Festival!

Ordsall Acapella singers have been invited to perform at the Buxton Musical Festival on the 17th July 2010. This is quite a prestigious event known throughout the music world.

The choir has gone from strength to strength since Jeff Borradaile, the Choirmaster, has guided them through many hours of practice on a Tuesday evening 7pm at Ordsall Neighbourhood Building on Robert Hall Street, Ordsall.

Ordsall Acapella appears at many charity events and corporate functions and is in much demand locally and elsewhere in the City.

For further information or if you would like to join us please contact Andy Townsend on: 07760 407460 or 0161 346 2630.

Langworthy Road primary school open day

Langworthy Road primary school has been a landmark for over 100 years! Why not visit before it disappears forever?

Langworthy Road Primary School, Langworthy Road, Salford M6 5PP will be closing this July after more than 110 years. We will be holding open days for ex pupils and any interested parties between 10-12am and 1-4pm on the 13th and 15th July 2010. Guided tours will take place throughout these days.

There will be a separate event on 14th July for ex staff who should phone the school on 0161 921 1970 for further details.

Your memories could be in Ordsall Hall...

Ordsall Hall's restoration is progressing well. Underneath the scaffolding and huge tarpaulin, transformations are taking place in all areas of the building.

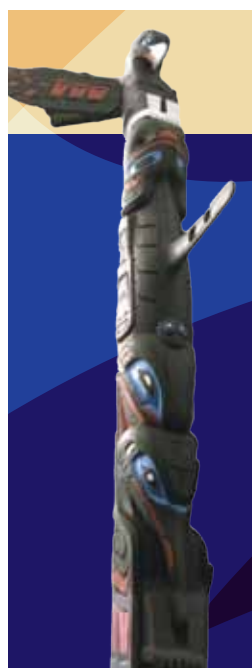

The fourteenth century roof beams have been uncovered and internal and external roof beams have been stripped of their Victorian coating to expose their natural oak colouring and patterns. In other areas carvings have been meticulously restored and conserved to reveal intricate details not seen for an age. New stairwells have been fitted, previously unseen rooms are being made accessible and medieval stained glass panels have been carefully restored to their former glory ready to take their place once again in the Hall. Outside, the Hall's ancient moat is being marked out, and trees and lavender hedges have been planted.

Whilst the Hall is closed for restoration staff and volunteers are working on lots of exciting projects inspired by the Hall and surrounding areas. We have been working with an artist and community groups to create ideas and stories for a unique textile hanging for the Great Hall. We are also working to capture photo portraits, stories and memories of people who live and work in Ordsall or grew up and went to school here. These will become part of a publication and exhibitions when the Hall reopens.

We will continue to collect more stories throughout the summer and would really like to hear from people that would like to share their stories and memories of the area. Maybe you remember growing up and going to school in Ordsall, did you and your friends play in and around the Hall? We would also like to talk to anyone who worked in the industries in the area, such as the Worrell's Velvet Mill and Richard Howarth's Mill on Ordsall Lane.

If you would like to share your memories and stories or for more information about any of the projects, please contact Hazel Fenton on 0161 778 0837 or e-mail hazel.fenton@salford.gov.uk.

Salford Totem Pole nominated for prestigious sculpture award

Excellent news for the Salford Totem Pole and its future with the news that it has been nominated for the Marsh Award for Excellence in Public Sculpture 2010.

This award is run by the Public Monuments and Sculpture Association (PMSA) which is a national body. The nomination was made by a board member and Salford lad, Anthony McIntosh, and the decision will be made by the short listing panel in June.

The totem pole has recently been cleaned by Salford stone care specialists Burnaby's and is currently awaiting restoration by Kevin Cranmer the Canadian Indian, nephew of the original carver, Douglas Cranmer.

The PMSA aims to heighten public appreciation of Britain's public sculpture, and to contribute to its preservation, protection and promotion.

Discounted tickets back for BBC Proms in the Park

BBC Proms in the Park returns to Buile Hill Park and Salford residents can once again get their hands on tickets at a special promotional price.

Saturday 11 September is your chance to be at the greatest classical music party of the season, featuring the award-winning BBC Philharmonic and world renowned conductor Stephen Bell.

Thousands of music lovers will once again be packing picnics, flags and bringing their finest singing voices to fill Salford's beautiful and historic Buile Hill Park for an unforgettable evening of popular tunes and rousing classics. Led by the BBC Philharmonic and featuring special guests to be announced shortly.

Anyone with an Ordsall post code can book tickets for just £13.50* each – full price for non-residents is £20.00 – but hurry as the special price tickets are expected to sell out fast and there is a strict deadline of Saturday 31 July. Residents wanting to buy tickets after this date will pay full price.

The news that Salford will again host the event comes as the BBC Philharmonic prepares to move to its brand new home at MediaCityUK Salford next year, joining the rest of BBC North at the organisation's new regional hub.

Cllr John Merry, leader of Salford City Council said: "Proms in the Park will be a spectacular showcase for our city and is the highlight of our events programme for the year. I am so proud the city has taken the concerts and the BBC Philharmonic to its heart and I am looking forward to another magical night of music and entertainment at Buile Hill Park."

Book your tickets now online at www.visitsalford.info or by phone on 0844 815 7131

*all prices inclusive of postage and booking fees

Ollie wiva Twist • Wednesday 25th August • 7pm

Everyone knows the story Oliver Twist! Now imagine that story based on a street gang from Salford. Fagin is still the leader of the gang and Ollie is still the unsuspecting member. Will Fagin review his situation and turn his back on his history of crime? Will Ollie be able to change the youths in the gang? This much-loved show has been twisted into a modern street version and will leave you with an altogether different opinion of young people from Salford.

To be held for one night only at The Lowry Theatre, Pier 8, Salford Quays, M50 2AZ on Wednesday 25th August 2010 at 7pm

Tickets: £6.00

To book tickets contact: Dan Zahler or Tracie Ross on 0161 787 3839 or at The Lowry Box Office on: 0843 208 6000 or book on line www.thelowry.com.

Proceeds to Salford Lads Club and Salford Foundation Trust.

Get on your bike

The Ordsall and Langworthy Health Improvement Team (NHS Salford) officially received their first Smoothie Bike at a festival held in Ordsall Park recently and soon had a queue of young people eager to have a go.

The Health Improvement Team funded local people from the community group GEARS + to make a smoothie bike from scratch, with the support of Aych, Youth Worker for Ordsall and Langworthy (SCC). The smoothie bike is pedal powered, which is a great form of exercise, with the reward of a delicious smoothie at the end.

Smoothies are a great way to meet your 5-A-Day and can be made from fresh fruit or canned fruit in natural juices.

The Health Improvement Team recommends that to maintain good oral health, smoothies are great as part of your 5-A-Day at meal times but not in-between meals. This is to safeguard against sugar attacks on your teeth.

Watch out for the smoothie bike at events and festivals this summer – and come and have a go!

Other Health Improvement Activities in your area include:

Shape Up provides local people with information on healthy eating, the opportunity to get weighed and the chance to increase your levels of exercise – classes in both Ordsall and Langworthy.

Swimming Group meets once a week at Clarendon FitCity to join in the adult lunchtime swim.

Power Walking and Exercise on the outdoor gym facilities in both the local parks.

Community exercise project supported by a local gym that provides off peak access to their facilities. The project offers local men an induction and 2 weekly visits to the facility supported by the Health Trainers.

For more information please contact the Health Improvement Team on 0161 603 4106.

“Active Health” - Exercise Away Depression

An exciting new programme is coming to Ordsall and Langworthy to help people who are struggling with depression. “Regular exercise is a great way of beating the blues,” says Dr David McKelvey. “We are delighted that our patients can now get some support to get moving so they can enjoy the benefits of exercising, and all for free!” Dr McKelvey is a GP at Regent Park Surgery in Ordsall who has helped get the programme up and running.

The project will run at the newly refurbished Fit City Ordsall gym and people will have a chance to try different kinds of exercises. Tom Wrigley, an exercise instructor from Salford Community Leisure, will be on hand to help people choose the exercise that is best for them and their level of fitness, whatever that might be! Tom says “We have called the programme Active Health as many people with depression feel stuck; stuck indoors, stuck in the mood, stuck in a groove. Getting people active can be a great way to help them move on from the depression, as well as them getting all the other benefits of exercise.”

This exciting new project will run for a year at least and will be starting in early June. It is being delivered in by a partnership between NHS Salford and Salford Community Leisure.

If your interested in joining the scheme please speak to your GP and ask for them to fill in a referral form. The form will be passed on to the Active Lifestyles Team who will then contact you to arrange a suitable date to be inducted by Tom Wrigley the exercise instructor.

For more information please contact Tom or Carol of the Active Lifestyles Team on 0161 775 0565.

Oasis Academy MediaCityUK get the green light

It's all go for Oasis Academy MediaCityUK, having received confirmation that outline planning permission has been granted for the new building on the prestigious Salford Quays.

The approval of outline planning means that work can now start on further developing the design, ensuring learning is at the heart of the building. Oasis Academy MediaCityUK will serve the community of Salford, with places for 1,150 students, including 250 places for sixth form students and will build on the many strengths the Academy has already developed.

Commenting on the approval of the outline planning permission, Patrick Ottley-O'Connor, the Academy's Principal Designate, said, "I couldn't be more pleased that the Academy is moving into the next stage of development, with this positive news. This is the start of the process during which our plans and aspirations become reality."

Aredi Pitsiaeli, Director of Strategic Development from Oasis Community Learning said "At the heart of Oasis is a desire to serve each community in which we work, providing the very best learning and other opportunities for all. A new state-of-the-art building will further enhance these opportunities and we look forward to continuing to build strong relationships with the local people who form the bedrock of our Academy communities."

New Principal for the proposed Oasis Academy MediaCityUK

"I am delighted and proud to be appointed as the Principal of Oasis Academy MediaCityUK" said Patrick Ottley-O'Connor, set to take charge of the proposed new Academy from September 2010. POC, currently the head teacher of Todmorden High School, is a committed and enthusiastic supporter of the drive to improve learning and teaching.

"Together with sponsors, staff, students and the community, we are looking to further develop an exceptional Academy, and to do that means involving everyone. We want everybody to understand that this is both for them and about them, and to be part of shaping the future for the communities. This is an outstanding opportunity for all of us involved in this project and I am honored to be part of it."

POC is going to drive forward the Academy so it is an outstanding place of teaching and learning, supported by excellent facilities that give students, staff and the community the opportunities they deserve. The new Principal looks forward to meeting students, staff, parents/carers, Academy Councillors and members of the community, both formally and informally.

Friends for life with dementia

Dementia Support Services at Age Concern Salford are involved in an 18month Pilot Project aimed at providing Peer Support for people diagnosed with dementia. This is to reflect the views of people consulted who have expressed the wish to continue to have a life albeit with dementia.

We will be offering groups in Ordsall and Langworthy where we will support people with dementia to discover ways to cope and live well with their dementia. There will be discussions, information and an emphasis on well-being of mind and body. In this way we can encourage people to have the confidence to link in with mainstream community activities.

We are keen to encourage people to volunteer to help with the groups alongside the team – we are a friendly bunch and would welcome any input!

The groups will be informal, welcoming and enjoyable for all involved. They will run fortnightly and be held either a.m./p.m for two hours each.

Summer security

Officers from Greater Manchester Police's Salford Division are urging residents to keep their homes secure from opportunist thieves as summer approaches.

It can be tempting to leave a door or window open to cool down due to the increase in temperature but this acts as an invitation to thieves to steal your possessions.

A third of burglaries are down to insecurities and at this time of year, incidents can increase.

Fiona James, Crime Reduction Advisor for Salford Division, said: "I cannot stress how important it is that residents secure their doors and windows, especially during the summer months. We have had a number of incidents where thieves have gained access to homes because they haven't been locked and personal property has been stolen.

"My advice is to keep your home secure, whether you are going out or not. If you are leaving it unattended, use a timer alongside a light or radio to give the impression someone is home. If you are going on holiday, ask a trusted neighbour to check your property as well as open and close curtains in the morning and evening respectively."

To report crime call police on 0161 872 5050 or for more information visit www.gmp.police.uk.

You can also call anonymously with information about crime to Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111. Crimestoppers is an independent charity who will not want your name, just your information. Your call will not be traced or recorded and you do not have to go to court or give a statement.

Community meetings prove a success

Police And Communities Together (PACT) meeting, has led to a man being prosecuted for motoring offences.

Residents in the Langworthy area decided one of their major concerns was off-road biking and wanted police to tackle the problem.

Since the meeting, officers from Salford Central Neighbourhood Policing Team identified an offender and helped prosecute him.

PACT meetings have been ongoing with neighbourhoods across Greater Manchester since April last year and are being held on a monthly basis. The purpose of the meetings have been for residents to attend and let officers know what they feel are the priorities that need to be focused on for that month in their local area.

Inspector Dave Henthorne

from Salford Central Neighbourhood Policing Team said: "The PACT meetings have been well attended by residents in the local area and I urge those wanting to come to future events to do so. It is an ideal opportunity for the community to tell us how they want their neighbourhood policed and for them to pick out the priorities they feel we should be concentrating on. This prosecution proves that the meetings and priorities are working as we work towards the Policing Pledge."

If you have any neighbourhood policing issues within the Ordsall, Claremont, Langworthy, Weaste & Seedley area, contact Salford Central Neighbourhood Policing Team phone 0161 856 5084 or email salfordcentral.neighbourhood@gmp.police.uk

Our Policing Pledge is a commitment from GMP to the public to provide the best possible service and make Greater Manchester a safer place to live. It has 10 key themes and sets out the standards of service GMP aspires to deliver. See our Policing Pledge in full on www.gmp.police.uk/pledge
